Region Coaching Representatives - 2019 Elections

Region Coaching Representatives (one per Region) are Registered Professional Coaches in good standing who are registered as being a resident within the Section and who have been elected by Registered Professional Coaches in good standing within the Section. Elected Region Coaching Representatives may only serve 2 consecutive 2-year terms. Region Coaching Representatives represent the coaches of their respective region and represent the region in which they reside.

Region Coaching Representatives Election Process

- Election rotation for the Region Coaching Representatives:
Edmonton, Northwest, South, NWT and Nunavut (if applicable) will hold elections in the odd years.
Calgary, Northeast, Central and Peace will hold elections in the even years.
- Online Nomination forms for Region Coaching Representatives will be distributed mid-January to all Registered Professional Coaching members in good standing who are listed in the Official Association List as a resident within the Alberta-NWT/Nunavut Section at the time of distribution.
- Nominations must be received by February 15
- The nomination slates (one per region) will be distributed in March.
- Each Registered Professional Coaching member in good standing shall be entitled to one vote for a Region Coaching Representative for their Region.
- The results for all Coaching Representative elections will be announced in May.
- Region Coaching Representatives election tie breaker policy: In the event of a tie, a second ballot would be cast. If a tie remains for the Region Coaching Representative, the current Section Coaching Committee Lead shall determine the deciding vote. If there is a conflict of interest for the Section Coaching Committee Lead, the Section Chair would cast the deciding vote.
