Coach Training & Coach Assessor Pathways

- There are no changes to Diamond Dances.
- The Skills discipline e-Learning module is available on the Skate Canada e-Learning site.
- Equivalency forms can be found on the Skate Canada Notice Board. STAR 6-Gold Equivalency Chart
- Skate Canada will be releasing e-Learning modules for each discipline - Artistic is next. Dance & Freeskate will be available prior to November 1st, 2019.
- You can get a head start on the new Skills content and familiarize yourself with the STAR 10 dance Cha Cha Congelado, by heading to the Skate Canada e-Learning site.
- Evaluators (now called Assessors) remain an essential contributor to STAR assessments. Trained STAR 6-Gold Assessors are needed for all disciplines. Coaches have the ability to be trained as Coach Assessors in the Skills discipline only.
- The STAR 6-Gold Content Overview document can be found in the STAR 6-Gold – Resource Guide – Appendices

Here's how you can get a head start on your STAR 6-Gold training:

1. Login to your members account at Skate Canada here.
2. Next, click on the "e-Learning" tab which will take you to the Skate Canada e-Learning site.
3. Select the "New courses" tab and scroll to "STAR 6 – Gold: Introduction" or "STAR-6-Gold: Skills".
4. Click "Enroll" and begin the course.

If you have any questions about the module or how to access it, connect with Skate Canada directly at info@skatecanada.ca.
