

Minimum Technical Element Scores

The following minimum Technical Element Scores (TES) will be required for entry into the 2018 Skate Canada: Alberta-NWT/Nunavut Sectional Championships:

- Pre-Juvenile U11 Women - TES 8
- Juvenile U12 Women - TES 10
- Juvenile U14 Women - TES 10
- Pre-Novice Women - TES 18
- Novice Women - TES 22
- Junior Women - TES 24
- Senior Women - TES 30

Clarification: There will be no required qualifying score for Men

Clarification: Pre-Juvenile U13 Women will not be included as an event in the 2018 Skate Canada: Alberta-NWT/Nunavut Sectional Championships.

Additional Information

How do athletes provide proof of obtaining the minimum TES?

When registering for the 2018 Sectional Championships athletes must provide proof that they have obtained the minimum TES required for their category for entry. A skater detail sheet may be requested to be uploaded into the Sectionals registration form to complete entry.

Why is the Pre-Juvenile Women U13 category not included in the 2018 Sectional Championships?

The Pre-Juvenile Women U13 category will be offered at all other competitions within the Section that host competitive events. The Pre-Juvenile Women U13 category will be included in the Leading Edge Series. Pre-Juvenile Women U13 athletes who meet the minimum TES for Juvenile Women U14, may make the decision in conjunction with their coach to enter the Juvenile Women U14 category.

What is the timeline for obtaining the minimum Technical Element Scores required to gain entry into the 2018 Skate Canada: Alberta-NWT/Nunavut Sectional Championships? (clarification as of September 7, 2017)

Athletes have from November 9, 2015 to September 25, 2017 at noon MST to obtain the minimum Technical Element Score required for entry into the 2018 Skate Canada: Alberta-NWT/Nunavut Sectional Championships.

Athletes may obtain their required Technical Element Score at any Skate Canada sanctioned event.
