

2023-2024 Junior Development Team Criteria

Skaters will qualify for the 2023-2024 Skate AB|NT|NU Section Junior Development Team based on their placement at the 2023-2024 Sectional Championship, as outlined below:

Singles:

Juvenile U10 Women:	Top 8 skaters
Juvenile U10 Men	Top 8 skaters
Juvenile U12 Women:	Top 6 skaters
Juvenile U12 Men:	Top 6 skaters
Juvenile U14 Women:	Top 4 skaters
Juvenile U14 Men:	Top 4 skaters
Pre-Novice Women:	Top 3 skaters not qualifying for Challenge
Pre-Novice Men:	Top 3 skaters not qualifying for Challenge

Ice Dance:

Pre-Juvenile:	Top 4 teams
Juvenile:	Top 6 teams
Pre-Novice:	Top 3 teams not qualifying for Challenge

Pairs:

Juvenile:	Top 6 teams
Pre-Novice:	Top 3 teams not qualifying for Challenge

Additionally, skaters may qualify for the Junior Development Team through wild card placements, as outlined below:

Wild Cards - Juvenile U10, U12, U14 Women and Men:

- Any skater who achieves a bonus while competing at the Sectional Championship will automatically qualify for the Junior Development Team.

Wild Cards - Pre-Novice Women and Men:

- After the top 3 placements not qualifying for Challenge, the next 5 skaters who achieve a combined score greater than 65 points (women) or 50 points (men) while competing at the Sectional Championship AND are U13 as of July 1, 2023, will automatically qualify for the Junior Development Team.
- Any skater who achieves one bonus, in either the short or the free program, while competing at the Sectional Championship will automatically qualify for the Junior Development Team.